Donor Makes Possible the
D.R. Kaufman Memorial Building!

By the generous gift of a donor and the unanimous vote of the AWC Board of Director’s, we will soon begin the construction of our new auditorium-educational building to the glory of God. How fitting that this building should be named after the late Rev. D. R. Kaufman, a lifetime member of Allegheny Wesleyan Methodism. He was a man with a heart for missions and a love for Christian education.

Facts You’ll Want to Know:

- Constructed without incurring debt.
- Seats 700. Room for all current functions and planned growth.
- Completely house our growing Music Department.
- Platform is big enough for Choir and Orchestra.
- Better accommodations for alumni functions.
- Provides campus community with a facility for a range of events.
- Repurpose Rhodes Hall as an Educational/Classroom Building.
- Able to expand our library without an additional add-on project.
- Enables us to provide needed faculty offices.
- Creates an area for a Student Union.
For years we have had the need of a place on campus where we would be able to accommodate large crowds. As the college has grown that need has become ever pressing. This last Harvest Days is a fresh example of how urgent that need is.

As we prayed and studied the campus God heard our cry and has answered in a miraculous way! We thank the Lord for how He cares deeply for AWC and pays special attention to our prayerful requests. It is our only desire that His gift to us would bring glory to His name.

All of this enables us to be true to our motto: “Where God is First” and to fulfill our mission of:

Preparing students to effectively serve God, the church and society by providing a Biblical education in a spiritual, social and academic environment based on the conservative Wesleyan tradition.
